

Tools for National History Day
Changing the Face of Medicine

Online Exhibition

Changing the Face of Medicine provides profiles of over 300 women who have influenced and enhanced the practice of medicine.

Tools for National History Day
Circulating Now

History of Medicine Blog

Circulating Now, the blog of the NLM's History of Medicine Division, explores a wide range of historical topics as they relate to materials in the NLM collections.

Tools for National History Day
Digital Collections

Online Repository

NLM Digital Collections offers thousands of biomedical books, images, maps, and videos. All of the content in Digital Collections is freely available worldwide and, unless otherwise indicated, in the public domain.

Tools for National History Day
MedlinePlus

Health information website

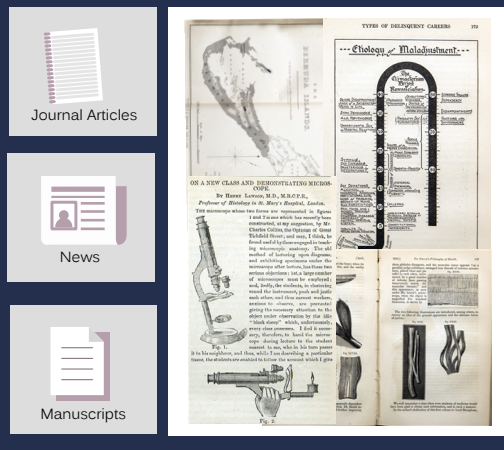

MedlinePlus provides extensive information from NIH and other trusted sources on more than 1,000 diseases and conditions in English and Spanish.

Tools for National History Day
PubMed Central

Archive of biomedical literature

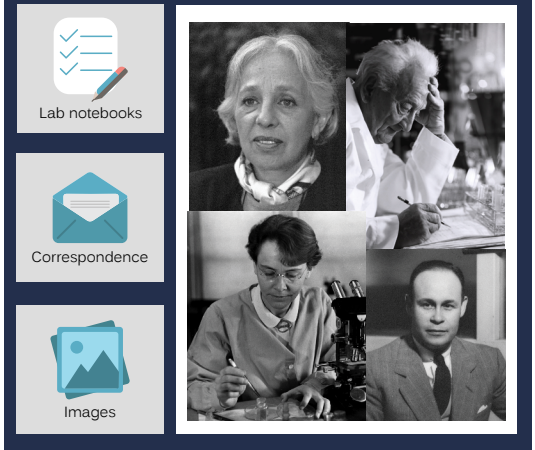

PubMed Central is a free full-text digital archive of biomedical and life sciences journal literature. It contains more than three million articles reaching back over two centuries.

Tools for National History Day
Profiles in Science

Archival collections

Profiles in Science contains published and unpublished materials, including manuscripts, diaries, laboratory notebooks, correspondence, photographs, poems, drawings, and audiovisual resources from biomedical and public health leaders.

U.S. National Library
of Medicine

Tools for National History Day

U.S. National Library
of Medicine

Tools for National History Day

U.S. National Library
of Medicine

Tools for National History Day

U.S. National Library
of Medicine

Tools for National History Day

U.S. National Library
of Medicine

Tools for National History Day

U.S. National Library
of Medicine

Tools for National History Day